27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 3rd October, 2021

We acknowledge the Gunaikurnai people, the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to this country. We pay respect to elders past, present and emerging, and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of reconciliation.

PRAYER OF PETITION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

A prayer used before every session of the Second Vatican Council.
This is to be prayed at the beginning of the Plenary Council.

*We stand before you, Holy Spirit, conscious of our sinfulness,
but aware that we gather in your name.
Come to us, remain with us,
and enlighten our hearts.*

*Give us light and strength to know your will,
to make it our own and to live it in our lives.*

*Guide us by your wisdom, support us by your power, for you are God,
sharing the glory of Father and Son.*

*You desire justice for all enable us to uphold the rights of others;
do not allow us to be misled by ignorance or corrupted by fear or favour.*

Unite us to yourself in the bond of love and keep us faithful to all that is true.

*As we gather in your name
may we temper justice with love,
so that all our decisions may be pleasing to you,
and earn the reward
promised to good and faithful servants, Amen.*

We welcome into our parish family this weekend

Elíjah Matthew Argentino son of Katherine & Matthew Argentino

Lewis Colin Alexander son of Amanda Little & Kaine Alexander

POPE FRANCIS' Universal intention - October Intention for evangelisation - Missionary disciples.

We pray that every baptised person may be engaged in evangelisation, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavour of the Gospel.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS want us to know that they are available to people who wish to speak with them at any time. If there is some problem you wish to discuss please do not hesitate to call Bruce (0412 938 772) or Jeanette (0409 662 925).
They will be very glad to speak with you.

The Laudato Si Action Plan SOME MORE SUGGESTIONS.....

Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyle calls us to sobriety in our use of resource and energy, living with just enough, so we can ensure a good-life for all.

Ecological Spirituality recovers a faith-based vision of creation, encouraging connection with nature in a spirit of wonder, praise, joy, happiness and gratitude.

Ecological of Education calls us to re-think curricular and undertake intuitional reform in the spirit of integral ecology to foster ecological awareness and action.

Community Engagement and Participatory Action calls us for inclusive and synodal decision making to care for creation at local, regional, national and international levels.

We are all called to prayer and action.

Plenary Council Agenda: The agenda is made up of 16 questions covering the six topics that came out of the listening and discernment process.

The 6th and final topic is INSTITUTIONS

- How might we better see the future of Catholic education (primary, secondary and tertiary) through a missionary lens?
- How might we better see the future of Catholic social services, agencies and health and aged care ministries as key missionary and evangelising agencies?

Celebrate the Opening of the Plenary Council with us!

For the past two years, thousands of the faithful have been engaged in many of the processes in preparation for the Plenary Council. Now, close to three hundred delegates will begin the difficult discernment process of the way forward for the Church in Australia, a heavy responsibility. It is the moment all of the People of God across Australia have played a part in bringing to fruition.
Thank you to every person who has participated in listening and dialogue sessions, set up rooms and invited people to come and be part of something, has emailed, or called or prayed as part of this journey of discernment. It is indeed a very special moment for the Church. We pray for the Plenary Council Members who have prepared for the First Assembly which begins today, that they will be attentive to the heartfelt hopes voiced in the initial consultations and they be guided by the Spirit of Wisdom and Truth.

Prayers for the success of the Plenary Council are deeply appreciated.

2021 Season of Creation
Celebration Guide

A Home for All?

Renewing the Oikos of God

As Christians we find hope in Jesus' life, message and presence. We call upon his name as we discern the movement of the Spirit in our time. We seek his encouragement as we work alongside all those who labour for a renewed care for our common home.

Jesus is the Word made Flesh and as such God's very being is entwined in one act of solidarity with all creation.

In becoming human, in taking skin, God showed his ultimate, definitive, final commitment to all that exists. This great act of fidelity to us and all creation can inspire within us a new spirit of care for all that is and will be. Our actions now will impact on all the generations to come.

We are all encouraged to join our Christian sisters and brothers in participating in the ecumenical celebration of prayer and action for our common home.

POSTAGE STAMPS:

Please remember to collect used stamps for the Salesian Missions. (They can be left at the Parish Centre, Nicholson St.) The funds raised is dispersed for education and relief purposes in Samoa, Guatemala and Timor Leste.

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy (30:10-14)

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul. 'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. R.
3. The fear of the Lord is holy, a binding forever. The decrees of the Lord are truth, and all of them are just. R.
4. They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold, and sweet are they than honey, than honey from the comb. R.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians (2:1-4)

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will teach you all truth and bring to your mind all I have told you.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (14:23-29)

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

Scripture Notes

"On the night of Jesus' resurrection, his first message to the frightened disciples would be: Peace be with you. Jesus would be consistent. The peace given by Jesus would not arise from the events and circumstances of people's lives in the world. It would be sheer gift, arising from their own depths where Jesus dwelt, substantially unaffected by whatever was happening in their world. It would be a peace that was also empowerment - not just hoped for, but verified by their experience.

The peace that the world gives is a superficial, illusory and fragile peace. So often it is the illusory peace that results from having a common enemy, with little other foundation than shared fear and hatred. People experience genuine peace, the peace that Jesus gives, only when they allow themselves to be empowered by the love revealed in Jesus, and choose to relate to each other in mutual respect and love.

Though the disciples might feel fearful, they had no need to act from fear. Whatever their experience might be in the world, Jesus' peace, the fruit of his presence within them, would be irrepressible."

John (McKinnon) goes on to say "We need to hear Jesus' words addressed, not only to the original disciples, but to ourselves. Many earnest Christians allow themselves to be unduly troubled and defensive by what is happening in society at large as well as in the Church itself. Jesus' words are not meant simply as reassurance; they are call and challenge as well. He invites beyond optimism to hope; the kind of hope that empowers and motivates ongoing commitment to the work of unshakable, confident love in the face of opposition, betrayal, confusion and disappointment. To access such hope, disciples - that's us, need to treasure the words of Jesus as they continue to make their home in him."
