Worksheets Available for Collection

Dear Parent/Carer
 Before Mass please collect a worksheet for your child to help them deepen their understanding of the Word during celebration of the Mass.

A beginning point for discussion for this week's Gospel could be:
 In today's gospel, who were the two people in Jesus' story?

- ♦ What did the Pharisee pray?
- ♦ What did the tax collector pray?
- ♦ What is the difference between the Pharisee and the tax collector?
- ♦ Who was pleasing to God?
- ♦ How can we be humble like the tax collector?

Liturgy of the Eucharist: The Fraction

After the sign of Peace, the priest 'breaks the bread' which has become the Body of Christ, and he breaks it, remembering that the body of Jesus was broken for us. The bread must be broken so that it can be shared by everyone, just as the body of Jesus had to be broken on the cross for the whole world share the life of God. The breaking of the bread remembers the death of Christ, that brought life to the world and that still nourishes us today. It's looking back, but also looking to what we are called to be and do now and, in the future, as part of the Body of Christ. When the priest says: "Behold the Lamb of God, the Lamb of Sacrifice", it takes us back to the book of Exodus, when the slaves are liberated from Egypt where they ate the lamb of the Passover. Jesus is the Lamb and He now is the feast, we are about to share. "Blessed are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb", language of the New Testament, the Book of Revelation, looking to the end of time when God will be all in all, and there will only be the joy of the feast

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice, turn to the Lord and his strength, constantly seek his face.

The Opening Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope and charity, and make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus 35:12-14, 16-19

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.

He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party.

He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story.

The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds.

The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable, nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement.

And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.

The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. R.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted, those whose spirit is crushed he will save. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R.

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me - may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself, and the good news of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 18:9-14

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else. 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Scripture reflection:

In prayer and in our church, we are conscious of coming before God; becoming acutely aware of God's greatness and our 'littleness'. In the house of God and our prayer, entitlements and privilege are irrelevant. In God's presence we are all exalted. We are all the children of God, we are all equal. Meaningful prayer only happens when our hearts are in the right place: being humble, open and receptive. We are all sinners. Successful people may be tempted to regard their success as a sort of blessing or reward from God. This may lead to judgements being made of those who are less successful, which are uncharitable and untrue. We may have been brought up to believe that we had to be dressed up, both outwardly and inwardly, before facing God. But we have to come before God as we are. "I am what I am before God. Nothing else. Nothing more. Nothing less. (St Francis of Assisi.)
