This week marks the annual occasion for the promotion of volunteering. It also provides an opportunity to acknowledge the generosity of our many volunteers currently serving our Parish and the wider community. You continue to inspire us. So many remarkable stories from our Vinnies Conference, our Parish Op Shop and the many individuals who are quietly providing for the needs of others without seeking anything in return; serving on committees and serving in the various roles at Mass. It shows that your motivation comes from the heart and fulfils Jesus' command to love as he has loved us. You all know who you are. And, I know who most of you are and sincerely thank-you. Most importantly, God knows who you are. And, the fruits that you bear as a branch of the vine, will endure forever (Jn 15:16). Fr Michael

RECOGNISE. RECONNECT.
REIMAGINE. WEEK

This photo follows on from an article in last weeks bulletin. Here is a photo of the 'village' the students at St Mary's Primary School helped to build as they worked together to raise money for Project Compassion. Together they made 47 shelters and with a 'Jeans for Jesus' day they raised over $1500. A job well done with students, teachers and families all working together.

Trinity
FAMILIES

May 2021 Appeal

The collection will take place THIS weekend.

Bishop Greg Bennet has urged the members of the diocese to generously support the annual appeal for Trinity Families, in our parishes this year.

He said "As good stewards of the gifts that God has given us, we must always find a necessary place for those who need our help. To achieve this, Trinity Families Fund needs to continue to grow its funds so that this mission of service can be more effective. I have been reliably informed that the demand placed upon Trinity Families' funding in the 2020 COVID year was actually three times more than was available for distribution. It is important to keep to the forefront of our minds that this is our own charity arm specifically set up to serve and support the needs of families in the Greater Gippsland area. While there are many calls upon our donations at this time, what is both worthwhile and unique about Trinity Families is that it is locally based and supports the particular needs of our area."

Bishop Greg urges everyone to give generously to the May 2021 Appeal by donating. Those wanting a receipt for Taxation purposes are asked to use the envelopes available in the church.

SOS SOS HELP! HELP!

Church cleaning takes approximately 1 hour each week. If we can find 12 volunteers it will mean doing the job once every 3 months or so. Can you help? BE ONE OF THE TWELVE. Of course more than 12 volunteers will make the commitment even lighter, almost non-existent! And menfolk! Menfolk! Please remember this is an inclusive parish. The ladies are more than happy to include you in what in the past has been an exclusively female activity. Yes, menfolk, get in touch with your sensitive inner dust-free self. Grab a broom. "Grab a broom for Jesus" (This is the church cleaner's motto). Please give an hour and enjoy the benefits. Please call Pattie on 5152 2942. (This is a serious call for help, currently we have only 2 volunteers).

ROSARY BEFORE MASS

During the month of May Rosary will be offered at 9am BEFORE 9:30am Mass. You are most welcome to come along and join in.

St Joseph the Migrant Worker
"Have you ever imagined
St Joseph as a migrant worker?"

Would he have taken with him as many tools of trade as he could carry when he fled with Mary and the child Jesus into Egypt?

What would it have been like for him trying to find work in a foreign land to support his family?

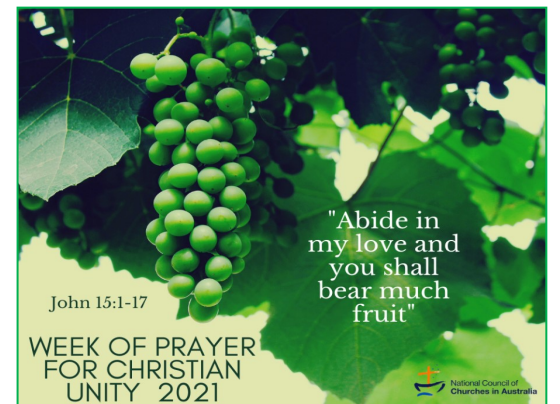

Would anyone help them, or would these 'outsiders' be exploited or left to fend for themselves?"

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (16th -23rd May) between Ascension and Pentecost.

Prepared by the Monastic Community of Grandchamp which is a monastic community that brings together sisters from different churches and various countries.

The theme that was chosen, "Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit", is based on John 15:1-17 and expresses Grandchamp Community's vocation to prayer, reconciliation and unity in the church and the human family.

PENTECOST SUNDAY NEXT WEEKEND

Pentecost Sunday - often referred to as the birthday of the Church. Perhaps, consider wearing something red to Mass as a way of acknowledging this special day in the Church calendar.

Work to be stewards to creation, to till and to keep.

'Developing the created world in a prudent way is the best way of caring for it, as this means that we ourselves become the instrument used by God to bring out the potential which he himself inscribed in things.' (LS124)

Start a vegetable garden at home as a way of becoming a steward of the earth.

Entrance Antiphon

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (1:1-11)

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands,/ cry to God with shouts of joy!

For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear,/ great king over all the earth. R.

God goes up with shouts of joy;/ the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.

Sing praise for God, sing praise,/ sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

God is king of all the earth./ Sing praise with all your skill.

God is king over the nations;/ God reigns on his holy throne. R.

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Ephesians (1:17-23)

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (16:15-20)

Jesus showed himself to the Eleven, and said to them, 'Go out to the whole world, proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptised will be saved; he who does not believe will be condemned. These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.'

And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place, while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

Scripture Notes

St Luke is believed to have been the author of the Acts of the Apostles and in the first reading gives us an account of the ascension of Jesus into heaven. The ascension is a mystery which is beyond words as Jesus returns to the Father. 'Unless I go, the Spirit will not come; but if I go, I will send him to you.' (Jn 16:7) The ascension represents the Lord's liberation from all restrictions of time and space, so that he can be present everywhere on earth. 'I will be with you always; yes, to the end of time' (Mt 28:20).

Mark gives us an account of the final commissioning of the apostles 'He who believes and is baptised will be saved; he who does not believe will be condemned.'

These are troubling words that seem to suggest that the gospel comes with an attached threat. But this would contradict everything that Jesus stood for.

The gospel comes as a gift from God and is a sign of God's love for us. Yes, there are consequences for those who reject it, but things are not as black and white as that today. Unbelief springs from many factors, not least from the poor witness or example given by those who claim to believe in Jesus.
